To whom it may concern:

Lisa Michelle is our go-to wardrobe stylist for projects big and small. Whether we're shooting a glamorous Bond Girl, or an entire holiday parade, we know that wardrobe issues are under control. Lisa takes the time to understand what our projects demand, and then gets the job done with professionalism and style. She is great with people, and handles clients and talent with care. Great taste, grace under pressure, and vast experience. Lisa is everything we look for in a stylist.

Sincerely,

Robert Kirkpatrick
