To Whom it May Concern:

Recently I had the opportunity to work with Lisa on a high-pressure advertising job. Although we had never worked together before, she came highly recommended from colleagues I did know and trust. As happens so often these days, most of the coordination was done via email and phone, prior to the shoot. She was responsive, energetic, and had solid recommendations to offer. It was obvious that she had many resources to draw upon, as several of the items needed were not easily found. Her excellent taste meshed easily with my aesthetic, and perhaps more importantly, with that of the client.

Upon meeting her, I was impressed with her outgoing personality and attitude towards “getting the job done right.” Clothing options were organized, sizes had already been properly coordinated with the models, and receipts for everything were submitted upon completion of the job.

During the shoot itself, she was never far away, and was always attentive to what was going on. This I value highly, as it makes the job easier, and greatly eases client angst. In short, I could not have asked for a better stylist, and look forward to our next collaboration.

I'd highly recommend Lisa for any advertising job, at any level. She can handle it!
